

Paper Recycling Conference Asia

Conference Day One, Thursday 30 May

9:00 Opening remarks
Jim Keefe, Executive Vice President and Group Publisher, Recycling Today, US

9:05 Opening Keynote Address
The role of recyclables in China's economic resurgence
Professor Wang Yangzu, Ministry of Environmental Protection, China (Presented in Mandarin)

Asia's Paper Industry

A review of macro-economic trends in Asia and current and planned capacity and capacity utilization in China and throughout the Asia Pacific region

9:40 Opening remarks from Chair

9:45 Overview of macro-economic trends impacting Asia's paper and recovered paper industry
Sally Sun, Audit Partner, Deloitte China, China

10:15 Capacity utilization and micro-economic trends in China's paper industry
Dr Cao Zhenlei, Secretary General, China TAPI, China (Presented in Mandarin)

10:45 Networking Refreshment Break

Asia's Paper Recycling Collection Infrastructure

An examination of the status and advances of Asia's recovery infrastructure and how it is stepping up to provide quality recovered fibre

11:25 Opening remarks from Chair
Adam Minter, Author and Journalist, China

11:35 China's paper recycling collection infrastructure
RISI representative - invited

11:55 Paper recycling infrastructure in the Jiangsu region
Niu Qingmin, Jiangsu Paper Association, China (Presented in Mandarin)

12:15 Scrap paper generation and collection in India; growth, change and modernisation trends
P R Ray, Esskay Impex, India

12:35 Panel discussion

12:50 Lunch will be served for all delegates in the exhibition hall

Recovered Paper Supply

An in-depth examination of supply volumes and quality from North America, Europe, and other exporting regions

14:20 Opening remarks and the global view of supply volumes
Bill Moore, President, Moore & Associates, US

14:40 High recovery rates and declining supply from Europe
Henri Vermeulen, Vice President of Recovered Paper, Smurfit Kappa, Netherlands

15:00 Supply volumes and quality issues in North America
Betsy Jordan, President, Jordan Trading, US

15:20 The current Japanese supply side situation
Yoshimitsu Tanaka, Executive Officer and Marketing General Manager, Kaneko, Japan (Presented in Mandarin)

15:40 Panel discussion

16:00 Networking Refreshment Break

16:40	Key Top Executive One-on-One Interview Your chance to put your questions to Ross Li, Deputy General Manager, Lee & Man, China
17:15	Closing remarks from Chair Jim Keefe, Executive Vice President and Group Publisher, Recycling Today, US
17:30	Networking Drinks Reception

Conference Day Two, Friday 31 May

9:00	Welcome back Jim Keefe, Executive Vice President and Group Publisher, Recycling Today, US
9:05	Mill Buyers Panel This session will allow the audience to have interaction with a series of respected mill recovered paper buyers from the Asia/Pacific region in order to foster better exchange of information and ideas in the buying/selling process. Short introductory presentations about the mill buyer companies will be followed by questions from the audience and panel responses on topics including: inventory control, quality, offshore versus domestic supply, new supply development, and others
10:20	Networking refreshment break
Broker Insights Sellers to Asia from North America and Europe will provide key insights on factors impacting the global trade of recovered fibre
11:00	Opening remarks Brian Taylor, Associate Publisher/Editorial Director, Recycling Today, US
11:05	European factors and perspectives on international trading Joris de Caluwe, Managing Director, CIPARO, Netherlands
11:25	Risks for the buyer and seller in an international trade Johan Boons, General Manager, SHA International, Belgium
11:45	Perspectives from Asia on influencers of trading patterns Randy Kim, Executive Vice President-Asia Marketing, Ekman Recycling, Hong Kong
12:05	Developments in the US impacting on generation trends Dan Cotter, Vice President, Recovered Paper Sales, Cellmark, US
12:25	Panel discussion
12:40	Lunch will be served for all delegates in the exhibition hall
Beyond the Great Wall Panellists will offer updates on the papermaking and recycling industries in some of China's neighbouring nations
14:00	Opening remarks Brian Taylor, Associate Publisher/Editorial Director, Recycling Today, US
14:05	India 's paper industry production and import/export patterns for recovered fibre and finished paper Pankaj Chowdhary, Director, Reliance Fibres, India
14:30	Paper recovery and recycling in Australia Lillias Bovell, Executive Director, PNEB, Australia
14:55	History and overview of collection and market conditions in Japan Masafumi Hongan, Recovered Paper Journal, Japan
15:20	Closing remarks Jim Keefe, Executive Vice President and Group Publisher, Recycling Today, US
15:25	Close of conference